WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

The Women of the South.

The following beautiful compliment to the daughters of Mississippi is equally applicable to all the fair daughters of the South. It is from a recent address delivered by General Albert Pike, in De Soto County, Mississippi. It is a gem of oratory—a compliment well deserved:

"Mothers, wives, sisters, daughters of the men of Mississippi, I cannot speak to you. No angel has touched my lips with the burning coals from the altar of the sacrifices. I leave to others the fine phrases and the empty compliments that you would not value. What you have done in the past is sufficient guarantee of your heroism and devotion in the future. You have more than rivalled—you have excelled—the women of Saragossa and Verona, and the Hebrew matrons and maidens who helped to defend the Holy City of Jerusalem against the legions of Vespasian. You will also do your duty in the days, dark or bright, that are to come. You will teach those who love you fidelity to principle amid all temptations, to prefer honor to prosperity, and the dangerous truth to the safe and profitable falsehood; constancy and courage, and the manly and hopeful endurance that befits a man.

You are the conquerors who take all men captive, and whose silken fetters, stronger than tempered steel, we are glad and proud to wear. Into our souls your eyes shine like stars, and we bow down and worship, and in love find new strength to undertake great enterprises or endure great calamities. O! flowers brought to us by the angels from the Gardens of Paradise, you bloom here to bless, to encourage and to console. We are all your willing slaves. Age gives no exemption from that service; for, in the sad and sober autumn of our days, we still covet the living smile and the loving look that can be ours no more.

The sober autumn of our days! For you, the bright and glad anticipations of the future, the dreams that make youth's happiness; for us the memories of the past, of joys and sorrows intermingled, of the hopes and loves, and bitter disappointments and cruel losses, of the days that are no more.

Our country, also, our own dear Southland that you love so well, has its memories of the past, of a glad, bright dawn and a morning full of promise, that darkened into a day full of gloom, and terror, and disaster. Out of that darkness the faces of our dead look sadly, and pityingly, and lovingly upon us. They have not died in vain. The land they died for shall yet reap the fruit of the great sacrifice. Our country, also, has its hopes, that are not delusive, for the future. To it, the sober Autumn days have not come—nor, even those of life's Summer. For it, the rosy days of Spring have not departed, though the immortelles planted by angels bloom on many graves."

OCTOBER REPORT OF THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a report of the condition of the crops in October. It says the full promise of the early summer has not been realized in the wheat harvest. The increase of area of that of last year in its effect upon the aggregate production is nearly neutralized by small diminution in some of the principal wheat-growing States in yield per acre; so that the increase in the total quantity, as shown by the October returns, is scarcely more than 8 per cent., and that is obtained mainly from the Pacific coast. The average from October reports shows a decrease in production in Maine, New Hampshire, Connecticut, New Jersey, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Texas, the latter having only a half crop.—The other States indicate an increase. In most of those east of the Mississippi, very slight. In Minnesota 18 per cent., Iowa 6, Missouri 8, Nebraska, 13, Kansas 23, and California 25.

Many places in different parts of the country, especially in Maryland and Wisconsin, report disappointment in the yield of grain in threshing. The disappointment, however, is sometimes in the other direction.

The oat crop is light in the Eastern, Middle and South Atlantic States. It is not a full average in Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa. In the other States the product is above the average, the largest increase being twenty one per cent. in Nebraska. In Wisconsin the deficiency is nine per cent.

Considerable injury from frost to the corn crop is reported in Northern Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and more Northern latitudes. In some portions of Iowa, an estimate of two-fifths of soft corn is made. From Southern Indiana, Southern Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, some complaints of immaturity in consequence of wet weather, and a few accounts of injury from drought, are received, but no general or very severe droughts are reported. The total product will not be what was hoped in the early season, or what is needed in the country, with its rapidly increasing population, but a somewhat larger quantity than last year, which was a season peculiarly adverse to corn production.

Cotton.—The area in cotton is somewhat less than last year. Its culture has been better; the preparation for planting more complete, and labor more regular and reliable, as a general rule. Early in the season the promise was fine. Serious losses have of late been incurred, principally from the cotton caterpillar, or army worm, which have proved more general and severe in Georgia than elsewhere; very troublesome in portions of Alabama and Mississippi, and somewhat prevalent in the Carolinas and Arkansas. Heavy rains in Tennessee and the Southwest have caused anxiety, but does less damage than was expected. Returns indicate a small crop, possibly 15 or 20 per cent. less than last year; but a complete estimate cannot be made until the crop is gathered.

Peas and Beans will be nearly an average crop.

Buckwheat is very generally deficient. Connecticut, New Jersey, Minnesota, California and some of the Southern States furnish favorable exceptions.

Sorghum has been more successful than last year.

Potatoes.—In Southern New England, New Jersey, Delaware, the Gulf States and California, potatoes are reported a full average crop, with a deficiency of 10 per cent. in New York and Pennsylvania; from 3 to 7 per cent. in the Southern Atlantic States and Tennessee; 20 per cent. in Illinois; 10 per cent. in Iowa; 11 per cent. in Indiana, 13 per cent. in Ohio; 16 per cent. in Michigan, and a greater or less reduction in other Western States.

Sugar.—Returns from Louisiana indicate an increase of 23 per cent. over last year in sugar cane.

The amount of old wheat on hand is somewhat less than usual throughout the country, with the exception of the cotton States, which have a higher average than last year. This remark will not apply to Texas, where the granaries are uniformly empty. The quantity left over in Wisconsin is relatively somewhat lower than in the neighboring States.

The stock of beeves in preparation for market is larger than last year, west and south of New Jersey, except in Indiana and Illinois, which States constitute an important beef producing section. The deficiency in Illinois is placed at 2 per cent.; in Indiana 5 per cent. The condition of fattening cattle is almost universally superior, giving promise of better and larger meat supplies than usual.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1868.

THE SITUATION.

It is palpable that the result of the October elections in Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, as doled out by bits by the telegraphic dispatches, was really staggering to the Democracy, and especially so to their new recruits in the Northern States, drawn from the Conservatives of the Republican ranks. The superiority of the Democratic and Conservative orators on the stump, over those of the Radicals, the large crowds attracted by them to the Democratic meetings, and the enthusiasm and furor excited by them, as well as the supposed disgust excited in the public mind against the extravagance and violence of the Radical party, led them to overlook or underestimate the superior organization of the Radicals, their tremendous army of office holders, all at work for the party, and the ponderous influence of the large sums of money they were bringing to bear in the canvass. The very enthusiasm of the Democrats led them to omit the real agencies of the former successes of the party, viz: organization and personal effort, and led them to look for changes in public sentiment which could only be effected by thorough work. Hence, their defeat.

The discovery of their real strength and their weak places, aided by the timely efforts of Mr. Seymour in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania, have revived and aroused the Democracy in those States, as perhaps has not been done at any time during the canvass. There is evidently more work and less bragging, and the indications, as far as we can judge them, are decidedly more hopeful. The Congressional vote in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, as now officially ascertained, shows very clearly that if the popularity of the Presidential candidates does not equal that of the local candidates, which we strongly suspect, we may calculate with some confidence upon carrying Pennsylvania and Indiana, if not Ohio, in the bargain. The chances in favor of the Democracy are augmented, from the fact, that, if we mistake not, Pennsylvania votes, to-day, (Tuesday,) on negro-suffrage, as do Missouri and Iowa, we believe.

Should the Democracy succeed, which to our mind is by no means improbable, the struggle has been of such a character as to teach them that their hold upon the people and the government requires the largest wisdom and prudence to maintain their position. While, on the other hand, if the Radicals succeed, the large vote against them may serve to moderate their policy and check the violence and bad temper which they would otherwise evince.

On the South, the elections to which we have alluded have had a discouraging effect. Borne down as our people have been, by the heavy hand of poverty and political oppression, every blight upon their hopes has a depressing influence. Under such circumstances the elections in the South will not bring out as full a vote as was desired.

THE CONTEST OVER.

The contest, which terminated on yesterday, has been a very earnest and hard fought one, on both sides. Much has been said and done by both parties, which ought not to have been. There has been too much passion, too much extravagance of language, for the good of either side. We have endeavored to avoid it, by eschewing, in a great measure, what our opponents have said or done. Hence we have seldom examined the Radical papers, and only when our attention has been called to some special matter. For this reason, we have seldom been at all excited or exasperated by them. We have endeavored to do our whole duty, coolly and dispassionately, and therefore find, at the close of the contest, that we have no vestra (!) opinion of our opponents than we had at the beginning, and hence our feelings have not been embittered by their violence and unfairness.—We know they deserve to have been beaten. No party ever merited defeat more for its wickedness and infamy than the Radical party. If they are not beaten, we shall regret it. Their success will give us no better opinion of their principles, or of the means they have employed to secure it. Our future opinion of them will be influenced by their course. We look for little good from them, and can only be disappointed, if they do well.

THE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

We admonish our friends to avoid both elation and depression from such intelligence as our telegrams may furnish in this issue. It is now rendered palpable, by the experience of the past, that it will be impossible to make up a certain, reliable opinion of the general results, by the news obtained by last night's telegrams. Perhaps several days may elapse before it will be safe to say certainly how the contest has terminated. There may be indications of the general current by those dispatches, but we cannot hope to arrive at certainty. The vote in the great cities of the North may be flattering to the Democracy, but it is chiefly from the rural districts that we must determine the strength of the tide in a given direction.

CLOSING SCENES OF THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States closed its session on the 29th ult. The closing services were held in Calvary Church, the clerical and lay delegates being provided with seats near the chancel.

The General Confession was read by the Right Rev. Bishop of California. The Right Rev. Bishop of Arkansas read the first Lesson. The Second Lesson was read by the Right Rev Bishop of Colorado.—The Right Rev. Bishop of Ohio read the Creed, after which the Right Rev. Bishop of Tennessee escorted the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Kentucky to the pulpit to read his Pastoral letter. The letter was in substance as follows: It is now nine years since we met with full representation of all our dioceses. In this period sixteen of our venerable brethren in the Episcopate, of whom two were presiding Bishops, have departed this life. Great has been our consolation amid many trials of our Faith and Patience, in the entire restoration of our unity as a National Church. Among the unusual excitements of the day, let us bless the Almighty God that our great Council has met, with a full representation of our churches in all parts of the land, and with wonderful harmony of purpose and action is about to close a long session, from which many who anticipated us not had argued confusion and every evil work. We lament that while the labors of our missionaries at home and abroad have been so noble and so faithful, the offerings of the churches, by which they should have been bountifully sustained, have not been commensurately abundant. Christian education is receiving an enlarged measure of practical attention, and schools of the parish and diocese have been to a cheering extent multiplied, and effectually worked. Much thought has been given by your Bishop to the necessity of enlarged associated effort in works or mercy and education. Much that needs to be done can be accomplished in no other way. Let it be understood that the sort of associations we must commend must be wholly free from evil vows or enforced confession, and in all things subject to canonical and diocesan authority. It is a matter of painful observation to your bishops, that, more especially in larger towns and great cities, where the need and the opportunities for continual worship are greatest, the churches are too little used, at all seasons, and often in the summer months are closed, even upon the day of the Lord. While we rejoice in the multiplication of churches, professedly free, provided they are properly maintained, we suggest that hundreds of our churches, apart from the ordinary services of the Lord's Day, might be freely opened to all comers for the ministration of the Blessed Gospel. City missions might thus be carried on, in many places, without the expense of erecting more churches, and the means thus saved might be used for the support of the requisite missionary clergy. But everything must languish in the Church until all our families are made truly Christian, and until there is, as of old, a church in every house. We fear that examples of manly piety are not abundant, and fathers too often forget that they are priests in their own houses. The unscriptural and uncatholic pretensions of the Bishop of Rome, as in times past, so now, are a fruitful source of error and of evil. They constitute to-day, as they have done for many centuries, the great bar to the restoration of the unity of Christendom. We deprecate most earnestly those extra[illegible] ances in Ritualism, recently introduced, which tend to assimilate our worship to that of a church not sectarian but hostile to our own. And we must also urge you to remember that the urgent obedience to our Bishop and other chief ministers promised by the clergy at the ordination would, if faithfully rendered, prevent these evils. In the former pastoral letters your Bishops have warned you concerning worldly amusements, and of the tendency of many forms of them to create a distaste for pure, simple, domestic pleasures and innocent enjoyments, and especially for the stern duties and elevated sympathies of a holy life. But, in our day, there is a licentiousness and grossness in theatrical and like entertainments which would have been shocking to even the least refined in the days of our fathers. We exhort you to flee these things, and, above all, to separate from all contact with these pollutions the young and precious souls for whom you have answered in the Holy Baptism.

DOING WITHOUT THE SOUTH.

The Commonwealth newspaper, Sumner's organ, states, as follows, the Radical mode of securing peace and doing without the South, in case Grant is elected:

"Let Congress repeal its reconstruction acts and put the South once more in the condition it was at the time of Lee's surrender. This it can do, as reconstruction thus far has been wholly a legislative proceeding. Then it will have the ground fallow for its proper planting. And if our husbandry has not been enriched by experience, we miss our calculation. What will be needed will be to begin anew, with confiscation of lands and the total disability of every rebel; no representation in Congress, military government, and the strong hand for twenty years upon the South. Let us see if she can get along without the North."

Partizan malignity could not go a step further, except to order that the throat of every white man, woman and child in the South, shall be cut, who is not Radical. Such an act would establish, beyond doubt, the piety and the humanity of the Sumner Radicalism.

NORMAN IS LOST IN PARIS.—The Revue des Deux Mondes says:

In the large lyceums and schools in Paris, it is said, the boys are very wasteful; they throw away half the bread they get for lunch, tread upon it, kick into the gutter, ink it, etc. Some of these fragments sometimes; the servants sell them to dealers who are called boulangers en chambre, and turn their acquisition to good account. They first pick out all the saleable pieces, which they heat in an oven and then rasp clean; thus prepared, these bits reappear in the market in the shape of toast for soup. Most of the croutons, cut into lozenges and served on the tables of the rich with spinach, have no other origin. As for the dirty crumbs and refuse left after this picking, they are pounded in a mortar and sold to butchers as chapelure, with which they cover their cutlets and knuckles of ham. The really filthy remainder, what is too bad even for chapelure, is blackened over a fire, pounded and then mixed up with honey, aromatized with a few drops of essence of peppermint; this is sold as an opiate for the toothache.

NEGRO SUPREMACY.—A Washington telegram to a radical evening paper says:

"A dispatch from Charleston, S. C., says that in the registration of voters just completed in that city the negroes have a majority of upwards of one thousand. This will ensure a Republican victory."

What a degrading confession! No hope of "victory" at the hands, not of one's party, (for there is really no such thing as a bona fide Republican party in Charleston,) but of one's own race! No chance of holding on to our offices, save as the negro comes to our rescue!—N. Y. Express.

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

A truly loyal Tennessean, named Bowles, thus addresses Brownlow's Legislature: "I am talking to your honest heart, Mr. Speaker, which I know you've got one. You give the rebels the power, and you'll be took outen that seat in no time. Do gentlemen say that we've got no right to brings troops here, when the blossom of Hell's Delight hangs high on a sour apple tree? The rebellion in Tennessee is now up higher than it was six months ago. Now, Mr. Speaker, I want to call upon your honest heart, which I know you've got one, to say whether if we don't pass laws, the rebels won't take the power and put us under hell's kitchen. The gentleman from Wilson said we've no right to call for militia. Don't you know that the rebels are gaining on us every day, and want to put us down and will do it?" In justification of Mr. Bowles it ought to be stated that he is by odds the most grammatical speaker on his side of the house.

HINDMAN AND HINDS.—The Radical press at the North is filling the land with lamentations over the killing of Hon. Jas. Hinds, member of Congress from Arkansas, while there is not a word bestowed on the far more brutal killing of General Hindman in the same part of the world where fell the "carpet-bagger" Congressman. Hinds was to the people of Arkansas (i. e., the white people,) a most objectionable man, and was conspicuous in the violent campaign raging there. He was shot by a drunken man while boring under high political excitement.—Hindman was shot at night, while sitting in the bosom of his family, by an unknown person. He was a man of national fame, highly popular among his fellow citizens, and had pursued a most quiet life since the war. Yet for the murder of Hinds the country must be thrown into convulsions, while Hindman's assassination is but a trifling event.—Rich. Dispatch.

ANN MELTON ACQUITTED.—The trial of Ann Melton, charged as an accomplice to the murder of Laura Foster, took place at Wilkesboro', at the late term of the Superior Court, and she was acquitted. The unfortunate woman had suffered about two years imprisonment, and, if guilty, she has been severely punished, and the gallows would have added little to her punishment. Thus ends this woful tragedy.—Statesville American.

There was a quadruple marriage in Indiana the other day. A man married his third step-mother, who had three children by his father, and three of his cousins, brothers, married three of his wife's sisters. At last accounts the parties were trying to find out what relation they were to each other.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced the qualified as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

A large proportion of the place is ditched and drained and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the products of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. Bryce's Creek, which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the chance the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

These returns indicate a Democratic gain in the county. The Radical gain of about 100 at this box is easily accounted for, when it is stated that U. S. soldiers voted, that there were many fraudulent votes, and that negroes were imported from the country in numbers.

FRAUDULENT VOTING.—Many negroes, after having voted here, on yesterday, are said to have gone immediately to the nearest precincts and doubtless voted again.—Others, after voting elsewhere, came here to register and vote. In this way, infamous frauds have been perpetrated, under the auspices of the League. So long as negroes are allowed to go under more than one name, illegal voting can hardly be prevented. It is so in regard to ages. Thousands of boys, under 21 years of age, have been allowed to register and vote.

U. S. OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.—The U. S. officers and soldiers, on temporary duty here, to whom we referred, on yesterday, as having registered, voted on yesterday, we presume. We hear that the most eminent legal talent of the city has investigated their right to do so, and that there is not a shadow of a doubt as to its illegality.—Decisions of the highest Courts have been found, bearing directly upon the question We hope that steps will now be taken which will bring the matter to a direct judicial solution.

COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS BEFORE.—Muscogee County, Georgia, has 40 or 50 pauper negroes in her poor-house, no money in her Treasury, and is compelled to borrow money at two per cent. a month to take care of them. "Gov." Bullock does not permit negroes to be taxed to bear their small share of this burden, and is vainly crying his bonds for sale in New York.

THERE are sixty thousand Federal office-holders in this country whom the people have to support by taxes. One half of the money wrung from the people in taxes goes to support these pensioners upon the Treasury.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Valuable Tobacco Factory and Residence for sale at Tally Ho, Granville Co., N. C.; W. L. Meadows.

THE AUTOMATIC WASHER AND BOILER.—This Boiler excels, it is said, every other invention in labor saving economy, simplicity and usefulness. It has been successfully introduced in Virginia, and meets with universal approbation. We are assured it is all that it claims to be. There is no humbug about it, but it recommends itself. No family should be without it.

Call at Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co's., and Lougee & Brother's, and witness the operation of washing. The character of the firm, introducing this boiler, so well known in our city, is sufficient recommendation to our people. See advertisement.

THERE WERE thirty six marriages in Wilmington, during the month of October—thirteen white couples and twenty-three black.

WE NOTICE, among the arrivals at the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York, on the 31st., the following entry: "Gen. M. S. Littlefield, Philadelphia."

CURIOUS CALCULATION.—When the public debt of the United States caused by the late war was at its highest point it amounted to nearly one dollar a minute for the time that has elapsed since the creation of the world. According to generally accepted chronology it was 4,004 years from the creation to the birth of Christ; that makes this the year of the world 5,872. There are 525,600 minutes in a year of 365 days; the whole number of minutes, then, since the beginning, is 3,039,019,200—in round numbers three thousand millions, which is about the number of dollars of our debt at its highest figure. Quite flattering to our national vanity, of course.

The Louisville Democrat says that a dance was going on in a room in that city, recently, when a large Texas bull, attracted by the music of a cracked fiddle, run his head, horns and all, through the open window, and had the effect of causing a stampede and breaking up the dance.

Brigham Young thinks he has succeeded in giving his theatre a "sacred character," but regrets that boys will whistle in the gallery.

The First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia has chosen and set apart five ladies to be deaconesses in the Church.

A PROPHECY—GRANT TO TURN DEMOCRAT.—In a speech made last week at Crestline, Ohio, Mr. Valladigham said:

"Now, my Republican friends, I have not said anything against General Grant in this campaign. I have not done it for a purpose. If he is fit to be President, long before his term expires I will be found supporting him honestly and cordially, against the leaders of the party which expects to elect him in November. [Loud cheers.] And you will have no right to cry out "Traitor" against him; you will have no right to talk about his Tylerizing, or his Fillmorizing, or his Johnsonizing you. You nominated him in Chicago; you put a platform—a something called a platform—into his hand; you asked him for an acceptance of it, and he accepted, and I dare say he would have accepted the Democratic nomination too.—[Laughter.]

But he took care in his letter of acceptance to say that he would not proclaim any policy. He did not consider it advisable to do so in advance of the election—to say what he would do when he was elected.—Now, I pray you to remember that I told you on this 26th of October that General Grant will reject the mad, fanatical, revolutionary radical leaders of the organization which put him forward, if he proves true to the Constitution and the Union of our fathers. [Loud cheers.] If he will restore to this government its harmony, and give back to the people their rights, north and south, I will be found among his cordial supporters, because I will be found in opposition to the radical party.

Why will he be in antagonism to the Republican party? Because he will be in antagonism to their unjust measures. But remember, my republican friends, you are electing him with your eyes open. When you old whigs elected Tyler, there was nothing said about what he would do.—You expected him to be committed to the policy of the whig party. When you elected Fillmore, he was no democrat, but in four months after his election his chief reliance was upon the democratic party. So when you nominated Johnson, which you did because he was a Southern man.—[Laughter.] Yes, you did; you did not know even whether he belonged to the Kuklux or not. [Loud laughter. But he lived down South, and you wanted the odor of nationality about your Vice President; you wanted a Southern man, that it might introduce a little leaven into your Northern body. You found Andrew Johnson, and you knew he had been a Democrat; and you knew he loved the Democrats so much that Republicans and Whigs had before time denounced him as a demagogue—which is another thing from a Democrat, and you elected him. I did not vote for him, because my suffrage was for an honest son of Ohio, George H. Pendleton. [Cheers.]

You made Andrew Johnson Vice-President, and some one says that God Almighty made him President—and it is not for me to settle disputes of that kind—I leave it to those who may have time to discuss it—but just as Johnson has refused to follow your radical projects, and as you have denounced him, just as surely will you be denouncing Grant on the 26th of October, 1869, if he shall be elected President. And then, too, we shall have the satisfaction of saying that we did not elect him."

FORREST ON KILPATRICK.

The following is the letter of Gen. Forrest, branding Kilpatrick as a liar and poltroon, to which reference has been made in our telegraphic columns:

MEMPHIS, Oct. 28, 1868.

H. K. Shackleford, Esq., New Haven, Conn.

Sir:—The false and mendacious representation of me, made by General Judson Kilpatrick, of New Haven, on the 20th instant, to which you call my attention, is not the first in which he has indulged since his appearance on the hustings in this canvass. I understand he freely employed his criminal capacity for ribald invention in all the speeches he has made since his return to this country, and that I have been the objective point of many of his unprincipled and indecent libels. The Northern masses have been so prone to misunderstand any appearance that I have made in the present campaign, that I have been content, heretofore, to forego any notice of Gen. Kilpatrick's inventions with reference to myself, and to trust that some future and more auspicious time would afford me an opportunity of stripping the impostor and of exposing him, the Base counterfeit he is, to the contempt of all just and fair-minded people. My forbearance, however, is construed by him as a license to additional and more slanderous detraction, and I am constrained to notice his New Haven speech, as it appeared in the Register, of October 21st, 1868. In that speech he is reported as saying "Forrest had nailed negroes to fences, set fire to the fences and burned the negroes to death."

This charge is but the natural off-spring of Kilpatrick's common and merited fame as an unprincipled and easy liar. It is enough for me to say, in which I feel I will be believed and sustained by every chivalric officer and soldier of the Federal army, that what he has said of me in the speech referred to is the culmination of slanderous falsehood, rendered the more odious that it is deliberately forged for effect upon the unthinking and too confiding portion of the people of the North, whose votes he intends to steal by such criminal and disreputable invention. All such reports, whether emanating from this creature Kilpatrick, or from any one else, which tend in any way to create the impression that I conducted my humble part in the war upon any other than the strictest principles of civilized warfare, are utterly untrue, and are the corrupt and feculent fictions of designing and rascally slanderers.

I am not prone to obtrude matters of this kind upon the public notice, and would have been glad to have met Kilpatrick and settled this affair in a less public and more emphatic manner; and if it should happen that this note should meet his eye, and he should make it the provocation of any additional display of words, any one who may hear him is at liberty to assure him that I am ready to meet him in any way that he may choose, and whilst I am averse to personal conflict I should much prefer to gratify any wish he may cherish in that way to being the further subject of his unmanly defamation and unsoldierlike misrepresentation.

I think the public will justify me in denouncing, as I now do, General Judson Kilpatrick as a blackguard, a liar, a scoundrel and poltroon. If he is the heroic figure he would have his Northern people believe him, my friend Gen. Basil W. Duke, at Louisville, Kentucky, is authorized to receive on my behalf any communication he may choose to make.

Respectfully,
N. B. FORREST.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT JOHNSON TO GEN. ROUSSEAU.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3, M.

To Brevet Major General Lovell H. Rousseau, Commanding, &c:

"You are expected and authorized to take all legitimate steps necessary and proper to prevent breaches of the peace or hostile collisions between citizens. Questions relating to the civil policy of the State must be left to the proper civil authorities for consideration and settlement. The object is to preserve the peace and restore civil Government to the people, according to the principles laid down in the Constitution.—You are referred to instructions heretofore given, which were deemed full and ample for all just and lawful purposes."

A NEGRO MOB—FIGHT IN SAVANNAH—FIVE NEGROES KILLED AND SEVERAL WOUNDED.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 3, M.

The negroes appeared in great numbers when the polls were opened, and took entire possession. This continued until about 7 o'clock. Every white man that came to vote WAS CLUBBED AWAY.

Finally, a fight commenced, and the negroes were driven back. The whites then commenced to vote. In a few minutes, the negroes rallied and attacked the whites. A negro deliberately drew a pistol and shot a policeman in the stomach, wounding him. The firing then became general in the crowd.

The police came to preserve order. The negroes fought them desperately. Finally, the police used their pistols, when the negroes broke and ran. Five negroes were killed and several wounded. Four policeman were wounded—one mortally.

A young lady residing in a house opposite the Court House was also shot by a ball, which came in through the window, but not dangerously.—Trouble is anticipated to-night.

Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade, &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk,

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, divided it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has subverted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and is sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention It palters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government.

And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Au., 14, 1868.
